

Pittsburgh restaurants that will be open on Thanksgiving Day:
(because we'll be closed)
(Info from <http://pittsburgh.about.com/od/thanksgiving/a/dinner.htm>)

Gateway Clipper

350 Station Square West, South Side

www.gatewayclipper.com

For Thanksgiving dinner with a different twist, try the Thanksgiving dinner cruise on the Gateway Clipper's Majestic. Two dinner cruises are available - one boarding at 12 noon and the second at 4:30 p.m. Enjoy traditional Thanksgiving fare and a live band. Great for singles who don't want to spend the holiday alone! The cost, including tax and gratuity, is $35.21 for adults and $13.13 for children, ages 3-12. Children under 3 are free.

Grand Concourse

One Station Square, South Side

www.stationsquare.com/grandconcourse/

This grand, restored train station hosts one of Pittsburgh's most popular Thanksgiving buffet meals, featuring turkey, glazed ham, prime rib, baked cod and plenty of side dishes and deserts. Reservations can get backed up later in the day, so be prepared to wait a bit for your seating. Hours: 11 a.m.-8 p.m. Price: $24.95 adults; children under 12, $12.95.

Hyeholde

Coraopolis Heights Road, Moon

www.hyeholde.com

One of Pittsburgh's most romantic and elegant restaurants, Hyeholde is a popular place for Thanksgiving dinner. They're serving their traditional Thanksgiving buffet of popular holiday favorites from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Thanksgiving. Price: $32 per person, children 5-12 $16, children under 4 free. Reservations required.

Le Pommier

2104 E. Carson St., South Side

www.lepommier.com

Le Pommier is offering a prix-fixe menu with four courses. Entree choices range from traditional turkey and trimmings to braised duck, pork, or fish. Seating from 4 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Price: $45 for adults; $25 child menu also available. Limited seating. Reservations suggested.

The Olive Press

Hyatt Regency, Pittsburgh International Airport

A traditional feast with all the trimmings, served buffet style. Price: $26.95; children 6-12, $13.50; under 6 are free. Park in the airport short-term lot near the hotel and get a $5 parking discount from the restaurant.

Opus

Renaissance Pittsburgh Hotel, Downtown

www.dineatopus.com

The three-course dinner includes an individual 12- to 14- pound turkey, carved right at your table, plus dressing, soup, salad, vegetables and dessert. Price $45 adults; children 4-12, $18; children under 4 free.

Orchard Cafe

Westin Convention Center Pittsburgh, Downtown

www.westin.com/pittsburgh

The Westin is serving a Thanksgiving brunch buffet with seatings between 11 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Price: $27.50; seniors (65+), $22.50; children 6-12, $11.25; under 6 free.

The Steelhead Brasserie

Marriott City Center, Downtown Pittsburgh

www.thesteelhead.com

Enjoy an elegant sit-down three course Thanksgiving dinner with soup, turkey and accompaniments, and dessert. Limited items off the regular menu are also available (prices vary). Hours: 12-7 p.m. Price: $24.95; children 12.50.

The Terrace Room

Omni William Penn Hotel, Downtown

www.omnihotels.com

The Terrace Room at the beautiful William Penn, one of Pittsburgh's treasured landmarks, is serving a four-course sit-down Thanksgiving dinner with tableside carving. Hours: noon-6 p.m. Price: $39, plus tax and gratuity; children 6-12, $19.50; under 6, free. Complimentary valet parking.

UUBU 6

178-180 Pius Street, South Side Slopes

www.uubu6restaurant.com

The Thanksgiving menu at this new South Side restaurant includes a pre fixe dinner with choice of soup, salad and dessert, plus a roast turkey dinner with traditional sides. $24.99 per person. An A La Carte menu is also available. Hours: 11:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.